The college currently has one sanitary napkin dispenser which is set up in the Girl's Common Room in the main block. The college also has 2 incinerators in 2 wash rooms (one in the main block and another in the additional block). These units ensure that maintenance staff have an easier day when disposing off waste. Both units provide for manual operation.

The college has more than one centre undertaking gender sensitisation activities, either as their core activity or as an incidental activity. The statutory Women Development Cell as well the research Centre for Women and Law have undertaken gender sensitisation programs on themes such as gender-based violence, safe spaces and gender as well as discussions on sex education. The college has also organised panel discussion on the current issues calling for gender sensitisation such as dowry deaths.
