The questions covered topics such as Indian constitutional history and basic fundamental principles. Clinton Damien, the Mar Gregorios College of Law Librarian, was the competition's quiz master. The competition lasted for 3 hours and was judged by the student coordinators of the centre for constitutional studies. The team from Sarvodaya Central Vidyalaya, Nalanchira, emerged as the overall winner after a close and intense competition. The team members thoroughly understood the subject and consistently provided well-informed and articulate responses. They received a cash prize of

19 December 2022

On 19th December 2022, a team of faculty members and students of Mar Gregorios College of Law visited the Mar Gregorios psycho social Rehabilitation Centre at Nalanchira as part of sharing the joy of Christmas. Students sang songs and engaged with the inmates for a few hours and inmates also performed. Sweets and refreshments brought by the students were shared with the inmates of Snehaveedu.

Students and faculty members engaged in discussions with the authorities of Archbishop Mar Gregorios Snehaveedu on the effectiveness of community-based rehabilitation approach in improving the function and quality of life to mentally ill people and the need for organizing awareness programmes so as to eliminate the stigmas and stereotypes associated with mental illness. As aspiring legal professionals and administrators, this centre visit helped students to understand their decisive role as socially committed individuals in shaping the legislations and policy decisions pertaining to mentally disabled in India.
