REPORT ON THE FORENSIC AND TRIAL PROCEDURE ADD-ON COURSE

The Add-on Course on Forensic and Trial Procedure was an initiative of Mar Gregorios College of Law under the leadership and guidance of Prof. Dr. John P.C, Principal, Mar Gregorios College of Law. The Add-on Course aims to instill an interest and initiative in students to learn about the intricacies involved in a criminal trial procedure from the perspective of various actors in the criminal justice system such as lawyers, members of law enforcement agencies and forensic professionals.

The Forensic and Trial Procedure Add-on Course commenced with an 'Introduction to the Criminal Justice System' by Prof. Dr. John P.C, Principal, Mar Gregorios College of Law. The session offered an insight into the acquisitorial system practiced in India, its features and a comparative perception of the criminal justice systems in common law and civil law countries.

The second session on 'Cyber Crimes' was conducted by Sri. Shyam Lal, ACP Cyber Cell, Trivandrum City. The speaker addressed the rising incidence of cyber crimes in the city, shared his experiences and discussed relevant cyber laws.

The third session on 'Trial & Judicial Investigation' was conducted by Prof. Dr. John P.C. The session encapsulated the entirety of the trial and investigation procedure touching upon crucial stages of the criminal justice machinery, supported by relevant case laws.

The fourth session on 'Criminal Trial and Major Components of Trial' was conducted by Adv. Vineeth Kumar, a prominent criminal lawyer based in Trivandrum. The speaker explored the nuances of a criminal trial, shared his experiences in the field of criminal law and addressed the moral dilemmas of being a criminal defense lawyer.

The fifth session on 'Stages of a Criminal Case' was conducted by Sri. Jose Philip, Inspector of Police, Police Training College, Trivandrum. The session offered an insight into the criminal justice system from the perspective of law enforcement agencies, covering the various procedural essentials that are required to be complied with by law enforcement agencies and the consequences of non-compliance.

The sixth session on 'Forensic Medicine & Forensic Science' was conducted by Dr. Geetha O, MD Forensic Medicine Professor & HOD, Gokulam Medical College. The speaker discussed the role of a Forensic professional at a crime scene and explored the theories and logic involved in scientifically determining the crucial facts of a case such as the cause and time of death among others.

The seventh session on 'Lawyer's View and Police' View of a Criminal Case' was conducted by Sri. Jacob Punnoose IPS, Retd. Former DGP. The speaker comprehensively discussed the procedure of framing arguments in a case from a lawyer's perspective with the help of a factual matrix. He highlighted the procedural requirements typically followed by law enforcement agencies in preparing for a criminal trial.

The sensational Abhaya case and Franco Mulakkal case judgments were discussed and analyzed by the students. Course-relevant materials were shared with the students to inculcate a habit of legal research and reading.
