Centre for IPR

Report – Lecture by Mathews P George

Date – 23/11/2023

Session 1– Introductory Lecture on Standard Essential Patents, 10 AM

Session 2 – Interaction on Career Opportunities in IPR, 2 PM

Session 1

Mathews P. George, a lawyer working both in India and Germany in the field of IPR delivered a lecture on ‘Standard Essential Patents’. This session was attended by 152 students representing the 10th Semester Batch and the 1st Semester Batch. The lecture focussed on the interaction between patent law, competition law and contract law.

Session 2

This was an interactive session by Mathews P. George on career opportunities in IPR. The focus was on internships, participating in article writing competitions on IPR, and career opportunities in the universities outside of India. The session was attended by 18 students who are primarily student members of the Centre for IPR.
