Library Orientation Report
Date: 05 FEBRUARY 2024
Venue: MOOT COURT HALL
Organized by: COLLEGE LIBRARY

Resource Person: Alex V. (Librarian)

Introduction:

The Library Orientation program was organized on 05 February 2024 to familiarize new students BA LL.B and B.Com LL.B programs with the library's facilities, services, and resources. A total of 108 students participated in the session. The session aimed to ensure efficient utilization of the library and foster a culture of academic excellence through optimal use of available resources.

Objective

The primary objectives of the orientation were:

1. To introduce users to the library's infrastructure, policies, and guidelines.
2. To provide an overview of digital and physical resources available, such as e-books, journals ,N-LIST, SCC ONLINE, CDJ Law Journal and My Loft
3. To demonstrate the use of library catalog systems, research databases, and other digital platforms.
4. To introduce library website
5. To encourage active participation in library initiatives and programs.

Program Details

The session began with a warm welcome by Librarian, followed by an introduction to the library team. The program was divided into the following segments:

1. Introduction to Library Facilities

- Overview of the library layout, including library in/out Management system (Gate Register), reference sections, and E-Learning access points.
- Explanation of library rules and regulations, including membership, borrowing limits, and operating hours.

2. Resource Demonstration

- Presentation of physical resources, such as books, periodicals, and reference materials.
- Live demonstration of digital platforms, library website and other research databases.

3. Interactive Session

- Hands-on training on using the Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC).
- Q&A session to address specific queries from participants.

Conclusion

The Library Orientation program successfully met its objectives, equipping participants with the knowledge and skills to make effective use of the library's resources. Continuous efforts will be made to enhance library services and ensure they align with the academic needs of the institution.
