REPORT

Event – Novices Moot

Date – March 9 & 10, 2023

The Moot Court Society successfully conducted its annual Novice Moot Court Competition in March, aimed at integrating first-year law students into the society while acquainting them with the fundamental concepts of mooting. Athera Gopan, President of the Moot Court Society, along with Muhammed Nihal, the Vice President, conducted an orientation session on mooting to enlighten newcomers. Kiran Tom and Dheeraj S S facilitated sessions on understanding moot propositions, guiding students through the intricacies of case analysis, memorial preparation, argument presentation, and courtroom decorum.

Under the guidance of faculty coordinator Ms. Merin Mathew, the competition was meticulously organised and comprised four committees: Court Management and Tabulation Committee, overseen by Bitchu John Chirayil and Sebin Prasad; Judges Committee, led by Farzana Safeer and Sana Shihabudeen; Tech Committee, headed by Prince Prasad; and Liaison Committee, managed by Saira Susan Jojoe and Jerin Sam Joji.

Spanning over two days, the competition attracted thirty-five enthusiastic participants who submitted their memorials and actively engaged in the competition. The final round, adjudicated by esteemed college alumni Mr. C. M. Arun Kesav and Narayana Sharma, witnessed commendable performances from all participants, especially considering it was their maiden attempt at mooting.

The culmination of the event occurred on March 10th, with the announcement of results. Niranjan S S clinched the first prize, while Adnan Afsal secured the first runner-up position. Megha Mary Abraham was recognized as the Best Speaker. Additionally, participants ranking in the top 16 during the preliminary rounds were inducted into the esteemed Moot Court Society.
