REPORT
CENTRE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL STUDIES
PROFESSIONAL SEMINAR SERIES

(TALK BY JIJITHOMSON IAS)

Event: Professional seminar series "Role of Administration in Democracy"

Speaker: Jiji Thomson IAS

Date: 24/11/2023

Venue: Seminar Hall

Introduction:

Jiji Thomson IAS delivered an informative discussion on the "Role of Administration in Democracy" at the Centre for Constitutional Studies. On November 24, 2023, the event took place at Seminar Hall. Jiji Thomson, a respected member of the Indian Administrative Service, offered his perspectives on the critical relationship between democracy and the constitutional framework.

Key Points:

Jiji Thomson emphasized that democracy serves as the cornerstone of the constitutional era. He highlighted how the Constitution of India reflects the aspirations of a democratic society, enshrining principles of Equality, Justice, and Liberty. The speaker underscored that the Democratic spirit permeates every aspect of constitutional governance. The speaker delved into the challenges faced by democracies in the contemporary world. He discussed issues such as populism, the impact of technology on democratic processes, and the need for constant adaptation to new socio-political dynamics. Jiji Thomson encouraged the audience to critically evaluate the evolving nature of democracy and its compatibility with constitutional principles. Drawing from his extensive experience in the civil services, Jiji Thomson shed light on the pivotal role of bureaucracy in upholding democratic values. He elucidated how a robust Bureaucracy ensures the implementation of constitutional mandates, safeguards individual rights and contributes to the overall health of democratic institutions. The talk extended beyond the Indian context, with Jiji Thomson providing insights into global perspectives on democracy. He Explored case studies from different countries, illustrating the diverse ways democracies adapt to local contexts while upholding universal principles.

Interactive Session:

The event featured an engaging Q&A session, allowing the audience (students of 5th semester BBA and B.com L.L.B) to interact with Jiji Thomson. Participants raised thought-provoking questions on topics ranging from electoral reforms to the role of media in shaping democratic discourse. The interactive session enriched the dialogue and provided a platform for diverse viewpoints.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, Jiji Thomson IAS delivered a thought-provoking and insightful talk on the "Role of Democracy in the Constitutional Era." The event, organized by the Centre for Constitutional Studies, not only deepened the audience's understanding of the intrinsic connection between democracy and the constitutional framework but also encouraged critical thinking about the challenges and opportunities facing democracies today. The talk significantly contributed to the ongoing discourse on constitutional governance and democratic principles. The Centre for Constitutional Studies deserves commendation for facilitating such an intellectually stimulating event. Jiji Thomson's expertise added valuable perspectives to the understanding of the complex interplay between democracy and constitutionalism.
