CENTRE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND LAW REPORT ON PROFESSIONAL SEMINAR SERIES

On 22nd February 2023, the Centre for Human Rights and Law under the aegis of Mar Gregorios College of Law conducted a Professional Seminar Series on the subject of "Medical Law and Ethics." Dr. Karthika Jyothish, an associate professor at Pondichery Institute of Medical College, served as the session's resource person. A total of 100 students participated in the session. The resource person has covered a wide range of topics related to the regulatory environment of Indian medical law and ethics, which is crucial for regulating medical activities, protecting patient rights, and influencing the formulation of public administration policy. It emphasised how human rights and medical legislation could coexist in harmony. The many gaps in the application of laws and medical negligence were other topics covered in the discussion.
