

REPORT ON REFLECTION SERIES: 1

The Legal Aid Clinic and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Mar Gregorios College of Law conducted a thought-provoking session aimed at fostering a deeper understanding of the legal system and promoting justice within the community as a part of the “Reflection Series”. The first session within this series featured a talk by Retired Judge M Rajendran Nair, who shared his extensive experience and insights gained during his tenure as a judge. The session was held on 1st July, 2022 and was attended by 123 students of various batches.

The reflection series was designed to provide students, faculty, and community members with an opportunity to engage with experienced legal professionals and gain valuable insights into the complexities of the legal system. Mr. M Rajendran Nair's session was particularly anticipated due to his distinguished career and wealth of knowledge in the field of law.

The intention of the reflection series were to encourage discussion and introspection on important legal doctrines and procedures and to give pupils personal knowledge of the functions and duties of judges in the legal system. It was also aimed to encourage participants to think critically and analytically and to instill a dedication to justice and equity among solicitors.

Mr. M Rajendran Nair's session comprised a comprehensive talk where he shared anecdotes, case studies, and reflections from his tenure as a judge. Participants had the opportunity to engage in dialogue and ask questions, allowing for a deeper understanding of the complexities and challenges faced by judges in administering justice.

The session led by yielded several significant outcomes to the students like enhanced understanding of the role and responsibilities of judges within the legal system. It helped to increase awareness of the ethical considerations and challenges faced by judges in dispensing justice. It inspired students to consider careers in the legal profession and pursue avenues for promoting justice within their communities.

The students were reflected on the valuable insights shared by Retd. Judge M Rajendran Nair and expressed gratitude for the opportunity to engage with a seasoned legal professional. Many highlighted the profound impact of hearing from someone who has played a pivotal role in administering justice within the legal system.

The reflection series organized by the Legal Aid Clinic served as a platform for meaningful dialogue, reflection, and learning within the college community. The session provided valuable insights into the inner workings of the legal system and inspired participants to uphold the principles of justice and fairness in their future endeavors.

The Legal Aid Clinic and the students of Mar Gregorios College of law extends its sincere appreciation to Retd. Judge M Rajendran Nair for his invaluable contribution to the reflection series and to all participants for their engagement and commitment to promoting justice within society.
