

REPORT ON REFLECTION SERIES: 2

The Legal Aid Clinic of Mar Gregorios College of Law organized dynamic reflection series aimed at fostering critical thinking, enhancing legal awareness, and promoting social justice within the college community. The second series was held on 15th November, 2022. It was attended by 185 number of students from different batches. The Reflection Series 2 session featured a talk by Dayabhai, who shared her remarkable journey from a nun to a dedicated social activist.

Dayabhai is a well-known social worker in central India, recognised for her unwavering support and community work, having originated in Kerala. Her upbringing and experiences in both urban and rural settings have given her a unique perspective on activism. Her work largely focuses on strengthening women, children, and indigenous tribes in central India, as well as other marginalised populations. She is devoted to using grassroots organising and community-based projects to advance social justice, gender equality, and environmental sustainability.

Dayabhai's talk's main goal was to inform and excite listeners about the transforming power of action and personal conviction. Dayabhai wanted to inspire critical thought and action in the audience by sharing her personal story. She gave an open and interesting lecture about her personal experiences, struggles, and reasons for becoming a social activist after leaving the convent.

Participants had the chance to converse meaningfully with Dayabhai and ask questions. The students acquired insightful knowledge about the challenges of personal growth and the function of activism in bringing about social change. Many others in attendance found great resonance in Dayabhai's experience, which inspired them to consider their own convictions and possible contributions to social justice initiatives.

Attendees reflected on Dayabhai's courage, resilience, and unwavering commitment to her principles despite facing numerous obstacles along her journey. Her story served as a powerful reminder of the importance of perseverance and standing up for what is right, even in the face of adversity. The session left a lasting impact on participants, inspiring them to reevaluate their own beliefs and consider how they can contribute to positive change in their communities. Many expressed a newfound sense of empowerment and determination to become more actively engaged in social activism.

Dayabhai's talk was a poignant reminder of the transformative potential inherent in every individual and the importance of harnessing personal convictions to drive positive social change. Her story serves as a source of inspiration for all those who aspire to make a difference in the world. The Legal Aid Clinic and the students of Mar Gregorios College of Law extends its heartfelt gratitude to Dayabhai for sharing her inspiring journey with us and to all the participants who actively engaged in the reflection series.
