

REPORT ON REFLECTION SERIES: 3

The Legal Aid Clinic of Mar Gregorios College of Law organized a thought-provoking session as a part of “Reflection series” aimed at shedding light on the intersection of law, justice, and marginalized communities. One significant session within this series featured Adv. R S Vijayamohan, who shared his experiences as a prosecutor in a case involving the prosecution and punishment of a transgender individual for sexually abusing a boy seven years back. She was punished under the provisions of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act in Thiruvananthapuram.

Adv. R S Vijaya Mohan is a Special Public Prosecutor at the POCSO Court, Thiruvananthapuram. The session was held on 17th February, 2023 and was attended by 113 students of 1st and 2nd years. The primary objective of Adv. Vijayamohan's session was to foster understanding and dialogue surrounding the complexities of prosecuting cases involving transgender individuals under relevant legal frameworks. Additionally, the session aimed to raise awareness about the crimes against the minor children

Adv. Vijayamohan's session comprised a comprehensive overview of the case, including legal proceedings, challenges encountered, and the eventual outcome. He provided insights into the intricacies of applying the POCSO Act in cases involving transgender individuals and highlighted the importance of sensitivity and empathy in legal proceedings.

Participants gained a deeper understanding of the legal and social issues at play in cases where there is a time gap between the incident and investigation. His first-hand account offered valuable insights into the complexities of navigating the legal system and the importance of upholding the rights and dignity of all individuals, regardless of gender identity.

Attendees reflected on the systemic barriers and biases that comes within the criminal justice system. Adv. Vijayamohan's recounting of his experiences prompted critical reflection on the need for greater awareness, sensitivity training, and legal reform to ensure equitable treatment for all members of society.

The session was a testament to the power of dialogue and reflection in advancing understanding and promoting justice within the legal system. It underscored the importance of empathy, awareness, and advocacy in addressing the unique challenges faced by marginalized communities, including the transgender community.

The Legal Aid Clinic extends its sincere appreciation to Mr. R S Vijayamohan for his valuable contribution to the reflection series and to all participants for their engagement and commitment to promoting justice and inclusivity.
