REPORT

Event – Training for Client Counselling Competition

Date – December 12, 2023

Since 20 teams registered for the Internal Client Counselling Competition, it was decided that all participants would be given training on the method of preparing for a client counselling competition. Final year students Karun Dan Sunil, Aavani RC and Neha S, are experienced in client counselling competitions. They therefore took the training which begins with how to approach the client counselling competitions, what are the standard conversations that have to undertaken with any client, and what type of remedies should be put forward to the client.
