Report on CDJ Law Journal Training Session

Date: 20th February 2024

Resource Person: Mr. K.C. SURYA NARAYANA IYER

Venue: SEMINAR HALL

The training session on the "Use of Technology in Legal Learning" - CDJ LAW JOURNAL TRAINING SESSION organized by the IQAC and College Library was held successfully on 20th February 2024. The event was a significant initiative aimed at equipping participants with insights into how CDJ Law Journal can enhance the legal learning process.

Resource

Mr. K. C. Surya Narayana Iyer, Publisher, CDJ Law Journal, Chennai, served as the esteemed resource person for the session. His extensive knowledge and experience in the field added immense value to the event.

Person:

Participation:

A total of 116 students actively participated in the training session. The enthusiastic involvement of the students was evident through their interactions, queries, and feedback during and after the session. Fr. Adv. Joseph Venmanath, (Director), and Ms. Sushma George Mathew, Assistant Professor, were also present to lend their support and insights during the event.

Proceedings:

The event commenced with a warm welcome address by Mr. Alex V., Librarian, who set the tone for the session by emphasizing the importance of technology in modern legal education and practice.

Mr. K. C. Surya Narayana Iyer highlighted the transformative role of technology in legal research, case law analysis, and academic pursuits.

The session covered:

- Digital tools for legal research

- Online databases and their effective usage

- The role of artificial intelligence in legal analysis

- Latest Cases - Last 30 days pronounced judgements

- Ethical considerations in using technology in the legal field

- Emerging trends and future prospects of legal technology

Practical demonstrations of tools like online legal repositories and advanced search functionalities were included, making the session interactive and impactful.

Conclusion:

The session concluded with a Q&A segment, where students posed insightful questions, reflecting their keen interest in the topic. Mr. Iyer's responses were both informative and inspiring.

Acknowledgment:

The organizing team extends heartfelt thanks to Mr. K. C. Surya Narayana Iyer for his invaluable contribution, and to Mr. Alex V. for his support in hosting the session. The active participation of the students also deserves special mention for making the event a grand success.

Outcome:

The session empowered the participants with practical knowledge of leveraging technology in their legal studies and future careers. It underscored the pivotal role of digital advancements in shaping the future of the legal profession.
